WEDNESDAY OCTOBER 30, 1860

FOR PRESIDENT,
JAMES A. GARFIELD,

OF OHIO.

FOR VICE PRESIDENT,

CHESTER A. ARTHUR,
OF NEW YORK.

FOR SPEAKER OF THE HOUSE

The first thing we heard after the Convention adjourned last month was that the Legislative ticket was the strongest ever nominated in this county, and the remark seems to have been fully justified. For good square business sense it would be hard to find three men who better represent the Republican party of Washoe county than our candidates for the Assembly. Frank Bell is so well known in this county that almost any man in it could write his life from young manhood up to now. He was born forty years ago in Canada. He came to the Pacific coast twenty-two years ago, and to Washoe county in 1867. He is of Scotch extraction, and bears many marks of his sterling ancestry in mind, form and feature. He is a well built man, broad shouldered and with a wide jaw, showing that he is possessed of the proverbial firmness of his race. We can think of no good quality in a legislator that Mr. Bell has not got. He is a universally popular man, although of strong impulses and decided opinions, which he never seeks to conceal. His morals are excellent, which is a surer guarantee of preferment in the Republican party than it is in the Democratic. He is an easy and impressive speaker, a good debater and an eloquent parliamentarian. He has had large experience in presiding over deliberative bodies, principally Masonic, in which order he is held in high esteem and has received high honor. He is a worker, and we guarantee that he will understand every measure that comes up before the House, and that he will be found acting and working on the right side. He is so well known throughout the State that he can do more to further any cause he espouses than any green mag could possibly do. Mr. Bell is Superintendent of the Western Union Telegraph Company's lines and offices between Sacramento and Salt Lake. In that responsible office he has for years filled a quasi-public position which has given him a deep insight into human nature and familiarity with large business affairs. If Mr. Bell is elected to the Assembly he can be relied upon to do all that is possible for Washoe county. His entire worldly interests are with us. He is connected by marriage with the best people in Washoe county. Mrs. Bell is a daughter of Judge J. J. Poor and a sister of Mrs. C. C. Powning, Mrs. Irvin Ayers of Bidwell and Mrs. Bourne. "Frank," as he is popularly called, is large hearted and liberal as all great big broad shouldered fellows like him and Garfield are. While he is as firm as iron on matters of principle, he is as full of sympathy as a woman. If we were a stranger in trouble we do not know of a man we would rather go to for advice or help than Frank. A moving tale of distress often starts the tears to his eyes and his hand to his pocket. Whether the people of Washoe county want him to go to Carson or not, we shall ever hold the private opinion that he is one of the purest, best and gentlest gentlemen we ever knew.

HAMPTON AND SHERMAN.
The little quarrel between Senator Wade Hampton of South Carolina and John Sherman, Secretary of the Treasury, furnishes an interesting episode in the campaign. The correspondence between them is lengthy. The substance of the story is about as follows: Wade Hampton wrote to Sherman on Sept. 27, from a place bearing the significant name of Daggers Spring, probably somewhere in the Solid South. He wanted to know what Sherman meant by saying before the National Republican Committee:

"And now you are asked to surrender all you have done into the hands of Wade Hampton and the Ku Klux," and the little segment in the North that is called the Democratic party."

To this inquiry the Secretary sent a long reply, to the effect that he presumed he had said something of that sort, but hadn't meant that Hampton was personally a member of the Ku Klux, although being a leading man of the South, he was necessarily profiting by the work of the Ku Klux.

On the receipt of Sherman's reply, Wade Hampton immediately penned a short and angry note, intimating that the Hon. Secretary lied. The Secretary's answer was that he would publish the full correspondence, and let the public judge between them. Yesterday the news was telegraphed that Hampton had challenged Sherman, and that the latter would reply in a few days. Of course, Sherman will not fight. The code is no longer a social law, and dueling has been long condemned by sensible people as a relic of barbarism.

The Secretary's reply to Hampton's first letter is a masterly political document. It will be found in another column.

IS IT CAMPAIGN THUNDER?

A great many intelligent Republicans, and every honest Northern Democrat believe that there is no danger of the Democracy ever attempting to pay Southern war claims. They know in their own honest hearts that they would neither ask it for themselves, nor grant it to any one else, and they imagine it is simply a part of the stock in trade of the Republican party, to be used for campaign purposes to the best advantage. If such Northern patriots will look for a moment at the course pursued by the Southrons whenever their local interests were concerned, they will find that the sense of fair play, has never interfered with their plans. Before the war, they pressed their sectional claims so persistently and ably, that the Northern Democrats were forced into positions of which they are heartily ashamed now. When desperate means were necessary to secure their purposes, there was no hesitation. They shrank not from civil war and all the evils of rebellion. They now have hundreds and hundreds of millions of dollars worth of claims filed in Washington, and they will not have to pass laws or press bills under any such offensive title as Rebel war claims, or war debts, to secure their payment. If they get possession of the Government there are several ways to slip vast sums of money through, without technically violating the constitutional amendments. Does any one who looks at their way of handling State and County finances, and dealing with Domestic affairs, suppose that regard for virtue or the spirit of the Constitution, will stay their hands?

EDITORIAL NOTES.

Many Republican newspapers are wasting valuable time and space in defending General Garfield against the Credit Mobilier and De Golyer charges. These charges were long ago disproven, and have no weight with anyone. All the leading Democrats who know Garfield bear testimony to his integrity. No sane man who knows his history and his present circumstances can believe him corrupt. These campaign stories have little effect upon the minds of intelligent people. There are plenty of them about Hancock, but we publish none. The issue is one of principles, not men.

HANCOCK ON CHINESE IMMIGRATION. — NEW IMMIGRATION. — IT IS TOO MUCH like an importation to be welcomed without restriction; too much like an invasion to be looked upon without solicitude. We cannot consent to allow any form of servile labor to be introduced among us under the guise of immigration.

The latest campaign story is that Gen. Hancock stole some oil springs in Los Angeles many years ago, when a quartermaster in the army. In addition to the oil springs, Hancock is alleged to have stolen boiler and some machinery. George B. Gilbert asserts himself the man from whom Hancock stole these things. Gilbert is now in Bodie, and the Free Press has published his story with a great array of headlines. Few people will believe anything so absurd. General Hancock is not a man to steal anything so heavy as an engine and boiler.

An Arizona paper gravely charges Hancock with having stolen a whole band of Government mules when he was a quartermaster in the army on the Pacific Coast. Had these mules been lagged into the campaign a little earlier they might have been of good service in towing Garfield to the White House.

The aristocratic Democrats of South Carolina announce in their leading newspaper that they will not employ anyone but a Democrat in any capacity, and won't hire even a kitchen servant unless she is the wife, daughter or sister of a Democrat."

The GAZETTE'S editorial room is provided with a very large arm chair which has a great hole where the cane seat ought to be. When a man drops in to look over the exchanges he is assigned to that chair, and after filling it once he never calls again.

While the valleys of Nevada remain flooded with warm sunshine, the prairies of Minnesota and the shores of the great lakes are white with snow, deep and heavy enough to delay railroad trains.

The man who betrayed the trust reposed in him by a generous Government, stealing the mules it was his duty to cherish and defend, can never sit in the Presidential chair.

Hancock can never walk into the White House over the free-trade plank in the National Democratic platform.

John Sherman's answer to Wade Hampton's challenge will probably be worth reading. We look for the fur to fly.

Hancock is going to write another letter, exposing his ignorance on the tariff question a little more fully.

The Enterprise says there is talk of getting up a grand Republican barbecue at Treadaway's Park.

No man who ever stole a Government mule can be elected President of the United States.

K. K. K.

Secretary Sherman Tells Wade Hampton How the South Was Made Solid — The Outrage of the Ku Klux Klan.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 21, 1880.

To Hon. Wade Hampton, care of Augustus Schell, New York: — Sir: Your note of the 17th instant has been received, in which you inquire, etc. In reply I have to advise you that while I don't remember the precise language, I presume the report correctly stated in a condensed way his idea of what I said. I no doubt spoke of you as a leading representative of the Democratic party in the South, and referred to the Ku Klux Klan as representative of the barbarous agencies by which the Democrats have subverted the civil and political rights of the Republicans of the South. I did not connect you personally with the Ku Klux Klan. Indeed, I know you had in one or two important instances resisted and defeated its worst impulses. I appreciate the sense of honor which makes you shrink from being named in connection with it. Still, you and your associates, the leading men in the South, now enjoy the benefits of political power derived from the atrocities of the Ku Klux Klan, in which phrase I include all the numerous aliases by which it has from time to time been known in the South. Your power in the Southern States rests upon from murder to the meanest form of ballot-box stuffing committed by the Ku Klux Klan and its kindred associations, and "as you know" some of the worst of them have been committed since 1877, when you and they gave the most solemn assurances of protection to the freedom of the South. These crimes are all aimed at the civil and political rights of Republicans in the South, and I believe but for those agencies the very State that you represent, as well as many other States in the South, would be represented both in the Senate and the House by Republicans but for these crimes, and the boast attributed to you that 188 Solid Southern votes would be cast for the Democratic ticket would be but idle vaporizing. But now we feel it in sober truth. While I have no reason to believe that you and your Northern associates personally participated in the offenses. I have named, yet while you and they enjoy

THE FRUITS OF THESE CRIMES, you may in logic and morals be classified as I classed you, as joint conspirators with the Ku Klux Klan in the policy which thus has been successful in seizing political power in the South, and which it is hoped, by a small segment of the Democratic party in the North, may be extended to all departments of the Government. It is in this sense that I spoke of you, the Ku Klux Klan and the Northern Democratic party. Permit me, in conclusion, while answering your questions, to say the most fatal policy for the South would be by such agencies as I have mentioned to secure again political ascendancy in this country, for I assure you the manhood and independence of the North will certainly continue the struggle until every Republican in the South shall have free and unrestrained enjoyment of equal civil and political privileges, including a fair court, free speech and free press, and the agitation made necessary to secure such results may greatly affect injuriously the interest of the people of the South. Very respectfully, your obedient servant,

JOHN SHERMAN.

JOTTINGS.

-- Reno is having a birth boom.

— J. K. Everett has got in a big stock of shovels.

— Chase & Thyes give the boys hot cakes for lunch.

— The foundations of the new foundry are 60x30.

— C. S. Martin advertises a fine new house of seven rooms for sale.

— Up on the hills the snow plows have been got ready for use.

— A brakeman on No. 8 got one of his hands badly injured at Boca today.

— Mountain Dan has been 'held to answer for the burglary of Holt's shop.

— Grasshoppers are hatching out in several places in this valley and Spanish Springs.

— A. Lindley is putting in more shelves. He is going to keep hardware and crockery.

— Henry Steiner is smiling all over his milk wagon this morning, because of that boy of his.

— A small human skull was uncovered in digging a ditch near the C. P. round house this morning.

— J. J. Harbiner paid Justice Young a fine of $9 for that assault upon Hudson in Sankey alley.

— Parties owing N. J. Salisbury had better read that notice in the 50-cent column, and be warned in time.

— Phillips would sooner have had it a boy, but he is tolerably well pleased with his second daughter.

— Congressmen Daggett and Postmaster Adkinson of Virginia will speak in Reno on Friday evening.

— Deficient subscribers to the torchlight procession fund are requested to pay up. The bills are not all paid.

— No man has to pass an examination on the tariff question to enter the White House and take advantage of its low prices.

— Mr. Higgins has arranged for a second excursion car to Sacramento to-night, and parties can procure tickets at the ticket office.

— C. H. Heller has a fine display of meat at his market on Virginia street. Several beavers, a mutton or two, and some fine porkers are hanging on the bed.

— The moon was an object of wonderful beauty at its rising last evening and when it set this morning. It came up big and round and yellow, like the full harvest moon of the east, and when it set in the morning was sky it shone with a peculiar silvery lustre.

What Dr. Gardner Says:

Toledo, Ohio, January 1, 1878.—The California Plaster Company. Gentlemen: Please send immediately one gross of your Pine and eucalyptus Plaster. I have been using them in my practice for the past three months and find their effects most wonderful, especially in Lung troubles and all affections of the Spine and Kidneys. In my judgment they are far superior to any Plasters manufactured. I can conveniently recommend them to my professional brethren.

REPUBLICAN RALLY.

BY TELEGRAPH.

Verdi the Victim of Speeches and Interviews With Leading Citizens.

Great Snow Storm in the East.

St. Paul, Oct. 19.

A number of Republican candidates went to Verdi yesterday evening on a special train. They held a meeting in N. J. Foxwell's saloon. Several short speeches were made and were very well received by the company, which contained a large number of thoughtful and intelligent looking Democrats. T. V. Julian was very happy in his remarks. He said he wanted to be District Attorney because there was a good salary connected with it. He said he had served in the office before, knew the duties and responsibilities, and he expected to work for and honestly earn the salary, and that was what he wanted. He wanted to give value received for it and was able to do it.

Dr. Dawson made a plain and sensible speech of a quarter of an hour's length. He showed that it was necessary to elect a Republican U. S. Senator from Nevada in order to have control of the body, and he showed in a few brief but forcible sentences the necessity of making that noble body Republican. He showed that he should only vote for Sharon as a last resort. When it came to Sharon or Slippery Jim, he would give his vote for Sharon, dropping with it a silent tear. One significant point the Doctor made was that there was not an important manufacturing enterprise on the Pacific Coast run by Democrats.

Frank Bell was called for and made a neat and telling speech. He said that Fair was well known to be a Republican in all matters of both State and National politics. He and John W. Mackay had always been in accord on such matters, and Mr. Mackay is and always was an outspoken Republican, and is to-day working for the success of Garfield and Arthur. The truth is that poor Jimmy has been bitten by the office flea and wants his soapy top-knot to shine in the Senate chamber. He thinks that only the votes of a majority of the Legislature are necessary to make him worthy to sit in the seat of Daniel Webster. What a commentary upon human nature. Mr. Bell said as against Fair he was for Sharon, but there are other Republicans in the field and Sharon would only get his support when no other man had a chance for election.

The audience called for P. N. Marker and applauded the old Republican warhorse when he stood up. He said that he had very little to say as a public speaker. His career in Washoe county must talk for him. He had lived here for 20 years and claimed to understand all the questions concerning her. He has cared on business and studied the conditions and knows what is needed. The platform of the party he understood and endorsed. The principles of the party he appreciates and loves.

T. F. Laycock made speeches, recited verses, sang songs and told stories, and captured Verdi entirely. W. F. Everett said that in his office the county wanted workers and not talkers. He had been Assessor for two years and the Republican party thought well enough of his manner of conducting the county business to re-nominate him. If the people at large agreed with the Republican party and continued him in the office, his past acts were the best guarantee of his future cause. Mr. Everett's pleasant manner and business like air won him many friends. Dan Boyd went up on No. 4 and broke into the meeting. He was received with hearty cheers, and a Democrat asked him to take a drink. Dan said that sort of a campaign argument moved him not. The party drove home by moonlight, singing patriotic songs and indulging in pleasant anticipations of November 2nd.

Fire and Late Trains.

The trains were delayed last night by a fire at Applegate station, near Auburn. The railroad company's wood shed took fire and was burned to the ground, with a large amount of wood. No. 1, the Eastbound overland, came in about 7 o'clock, closely followed by No. 3.

Forty Men Wanted.

Mr. Scoville states that the masons having finished their work on the V. & T. bridge abutments, the work of putting in the embankments will commence immediately. The gravel train will commence running Friday morning and will employ about forty men.

Last Day of Registration.

The registration of voters closes at six o'clock this evening. At noon today the number registered in this precinct was 1,000. In 1878 there were 944 and in 1876 there were 986 votes registered here. There is a large foreign element in the list.

Railroad Surveying.

Surveyors have been surveying a line for the Nevada and Oregon railroad through town to-day. It passes within a few feet of Martin's planing mill, and crosses the river a little above C. P. wood pile, at a point where a cabin stands on the river bank.

We Challenge The World.

When we say we believe, we have evidence to prove that Shiloh's Consumption Cure is decidedly the best Lung Medicine made, in as much as it will cure a common or Chronic Cough in one-half the time and relieve Asthma, Bronchitis, whooping cough, croup, and show more cases of consumption cured than all others. It will cure where they fail, it is pleasant to take, harmless to the youngest child, and we guarantee what we say. Price, 10 cts., 50 cts. and $1.00. If your Lungs are sore, chest or back lame, use Shiloh's Plaster. Sold by Osburn & Shoemaker, Drugists, Reno, Nevada.

Slaven's Cherry Tooth Paste.

For the Right.

Hon. Wm. Boardman, Hon. T. V. Julian and R. L. Fulton will address the people of Washoe County as follows: Glendale, Oct. 21; Verdi, Oct. 26; Pyramid, Oct. 27; Brown's, Oct. 28; Franktown, Oct. 29; Wadsworth, Oct. 30; Reno, Nov. 1.

What Dr. Gardner Says:

Toledo, Ohio, January 1, 1878.—The California Plaster Company. Gentlemen: Please send immediately one gross of your Pine and eucalyptus Plaster. I have been using them in my practice for the past three months and find their effects most wonderful, especially in Lung troubles and all affections of the Spine and Kidneys. In my judgment they are far superior to any Plasters manufactured. I can conveniently recommend them to my professional brethren.

Oct. 20—H. H. GARDNER, M. D.

Sure as Death.

State and County taxes are now due. On the 15th day of November they will be delinquent.

We Can't Talk.

Without showing the condition of our teeth. Every laugh exposes them. In order not to be ashamed of them, let us use that standard dentifrice, SOZODONT, which is sure to keep them white and spotless. No tartar can encrust them, no canker affect the enamel; if SOZODONT is regularly used. It is a botanical preparation, and its beneficial effects on the teeth and gums are marvelous, as it removes all discolorations, and renders the gums hard and rosy.

A Card.
